

Day 1 – Monday, September 28 2015

Details
Contributed Papers Session 1: Plenary Session
Elisabetta Magnani, School of Economics and CEPAR, UNSW Australia Older workers' labour market performance: Integrating labour market's supply-side and demand-side responses to structural change FULL PAPER HERE
Sang-Hyop Lee, Department of Economics, University of Hawaii at Manoa and East West Centre. Co-authors: Suphannada Lowhachai and Tanisa Tawichsri Population aging and fiscal sustainability in Thailand: The National Transfer Accounts (NTA) approach
Naomi Noguchi, Centre for Education and Research on Aging, University of Sydney Prevalence and incidence of the geriatric syndromes and frailty in community-dwelling older men: The Concord Health and Ageing in Men Project
Tri Budi W. Rahardjo, Centre for Ageing Studies, University of Indonesia Co-authors: Dinni Agustin, Lindawati Kusdhany, Damona Kwintatmi, Hernani Djarir and Upik Rukmini Population ageing and policy framework on healthy ageing in Indonesia FULL PAPER HERE
Keynote 1:
Philip O'Keefe, Lead Economist Human Development, Asia Pacific, World Bank. Pension development, trends and directions in East Asia and Pacific.
Keynote 2:
Dr. James P. Smith, Chair in Labor Markets and Demographic Studies RAND Corporation. HRS around the world

Contributed PapersSession 2: Aged Care

Michael Penkunas, Centre for Aging Research and Education, Duke-NUS Graduate Medical School Singapore

Co-authors: Angelique Chan, David B. Matchar, Dirk F. de Korne, Chek Hooi Wong, Sweet Fun Wong, & Yan Hoon Ang.

"Oh yeah, it helped a lot really": A qualitative study of informal caregiver relief provided through a home-health intervention in Singapore

Marijan Jukic, Australian National University.

Co-author: Richard Cumpston

Modelling entry to residential aged care in Australia

Shelley de la Vega, Department of Medicine, University of the Philippines.

Policy landscape on health human resource for an aging Philippines

Contributed Papers:Session 3: Elderly Wellbeing

Joanna Broad, Department of Geriatric Medicine, University of Auckland.

Co-authors: Martin J. Connolly, Min Soo Kim, Brian Ok, Toni Ashton and Peter B. Davis

The silver tide: Late life care in ageing populations

Katrina Radford, Cognitive Decline Partnership Centre

Co-authors: Anneke Fitzgerald and Nerina Vecchio

Intergenerational care programs in Australia: A potential positive social care response to the ageing population

Michael Penkunas, Centre for Aging Research and Education, Duke-NUS Graduate Medical School Singapore.

Co-authors: Bina Gubhaju, Angelique Chan and Truls Ostbye

Gender, marital status, and intergenerational support to and from older Singaporeans: Results from the Panel on Health and Ageing of Singaporean Elderly \(PHASE\)

Lathifah Hanum, Faculty of Psychology, University of Indonesia.

Living with chronic disease: Life satisfaction differences between elderly with one and multiple chronic disease

FULL PAPER HERE

Maria de la Luz Casas-Perez, Tecnologico de Monterrey, Mexico

Mobile technology to improve health of senior citizens in Mexico

FULL PAPER HERE

Day 2 – Tuesday, September 29 2015

Details
Keynote 3:
Scientia Professor Henry Brodaty, Director, Dementia Collaborative Research Centre, UNSW Australia Co-author: Yun-Hee Jeon Psychosocial -Research Consortium to Advance Mental Health of Older People in the Asia Pacific Region (PROMOTE)
Contributed Papers:
Session 4A: Economics and Demographic
Yan Yu, Crawford School of Public Policy and CEPAR, Australian National University Co-author: Peter McDonald Mortality change in the United States vs. Australia, France and Japan: 1950 to 2010
Vasontara Yiengprugsawan, ANU College of Medicine, Biology and Environment and CEPAR, Australian National University Co-authors: Judith Healy and Hal Kendig Regional overview of population ageing and non-communicable diseases: synergies and implications for health systems in a range of Asia-Pacific countries
Xiangling Liu, CEPAR, UNSW Australia. Household housing equity portfolio optimization
Contributed Papers:
Session 4B: Physiological and Biological
Daniel Exeter, School of Population Health, University of Auckland Co-authors: Billy Wu, Arier C. Lee and Grant D. Searchfield Projecting the burden of hearing loss in New Zealand (2011-2061)
Dewi Priandini, Faculty of Dentistry, Trisakti University Indonesia Co-authors: Tri Budi W. Rahardjo and Eef Hogervorst Level of interleukin (IL)-6 saliva in the elderly with oral infection
Contributed Papers
Session 5A: PhD Students
Shang Wu, School of Risk and Actuarial Studies and CEPAR, UNSW Australia Optimal portfolio allocation with health contingent income products: The value of life care annuities FULL PAPER HERE
Xiaolou Dou, School of Urban and Environmental Science, Peking University Elderly migration in China: Patterns and motivations

Xu Ruozhi, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology Labour supply decisions and mental health: Does retirement matter?
Jia Miao, Division of Social Sciences, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology The subjective wellbeing of Chinese elderly: A comparative analysis among urban China, Hong Kong and Taiwan
Contributed Papers Session 5B: PhD Students
Chonticha Asavanirandorn, College of Population Studies, Chulalongkorn University Pattern of support exchange and happiness of Thai elderly
Mingxu Yang, Zhejiang University A landscape of aged Chinese from 2000-2010: Statistics from the longitudinal survey SSAPUR
Duong Van Tuyen, College of Public Health and Nutrition, Taipei Medical University Personal health behaviors and modification of health literacy with age among women in Taiwan FULL PAPER HERE
Fengming Chen, Graduate School of Economics and Management, Tohoku University One-child policy and the living arrangements of the elderly in China
Contributed papers Session 6: Plenary
Elena Capatina, CEPAR, UNSW Australia A Model of Long Term Care and Family Structure Risk
George Kudrna, CEPAR, UNSW Australia Co-authors: Chung Tran and Alan Woodland Facing demographic challenges. Pension cuts or tax hikes FULL PAPER HERE
Linda Rosenman, School of Nursing, Midwifery and Social Work, University of Queensland Co-authors: Cheryl Tilse, Jill Wilson, Rachel Feeney and Ben White Wills and the Intergenerational transfer of wealth FULL PAPER HERE